

LoLo CDT Annual Colloquium 2011

Thursday 10 November 2011

BMA House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9JP

PROGRAMME

- 09.45 Registration – tea and coffee available
John Snow Room
- 10.15 Welcome and the changing landscape of energy in the UK
Sir James Paget Room
Professor Tadj Oreszczyn, Director, UCL Energy Institute
- 10.30 Review of the year – LoLo CDT activities
Professor Kevin Lomas, Loughborough University (Director, LoLo CDT)
- 11.00 Keynote address - Bukky Bird, Head of Environment, Tesco Property
With responsibility for shaping strategy for Tesco's sustainability targets in relation to its built estate, Bukky will speak about Tesco's interests and priorities for low carbon initiatives, as well as the opportunities and obstacles in meeting these challenges.
- 11.30 Comfort break
- 11.40 Student presentations
- The expanding house: extensions to domestic buildings and their impact on energy consumption (MRes) - Richard Jack, Loughborough University
- Modelling the effect of retrofit on space use of occupants of UK dwellings (PhD) - Jenny Love, UCL Energy Institute
- Investigating the performance of offsite volumetric modular construction and its potential to achieve the zero carbon target by 2016 (PhD) - Ella Quigley, Loughborough University
- What is the propensity for conflict due to shared lighting controls in an open-plan office? (MRes) - Faye Wade, UCL Energy Institute
- 12.00 Lunch and student poster session
John Snow Room
- 14.00 The stakeholder perspective – facilitated session
Sir James Paget Room
Chair: Professor Tadj Oreszczyn. Panel: Dr Hunter Danskin, Head, Technical Energy Analysis, DECC; Professor Niklaus Kohler, Emeritus Professor, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology & Ant Wilson, Director, Sustainable Development Group, AECOM
- 15.15 Coffee break
- 15.45 The year ahead and mechanisms for stakeholder engagement
Professor Kevin Lomas
- 16.15 Wrap up and poster competition prize announcement
Professor Tadj Oreszczyn
- 17.00 - 18.00 Drinks Reception
John Snow Room

